Since printing our second section, we have found out where the name, Camp McCain, our local military camp, comes from. It is in honor of General Henry Pinkney McCain, a native of Carroll County, and an uncle of Mrs. Harry Adams and cousin of the Young sisters. General McCain was "father" of the draft act of first World War days.

If you do not read "He Wants To Go Back" on the front page of the second section, you have missed a rare treat. I did not write it so do not accuse me of self-glorification.

Somebody stole two hams of meat from Dr. Hill recently, they say—the hoarder (Spell it right, Horn).

We were out at the camp Wednesday morning looking around and visiting Mr. Phillips and Major Wade, etc. It looks to me that they would need a lot of printing out there.

What's in a name. Freddie Little's wife reported that they have a fellow by the name of John Sharp Williams on their farm, and that "he is the strictest thing we ever saw."

I have a bone to pick with Hamp Dean of the free state. I understand that he took my colored ex-secretary, Sele Clark, off the other night and got him played drunk.

Preacher Pharr, in his mellow tenor voice, is now singing the old song, "Ain't they sweet."

The War Bond Pledge Drive starts in Mississippi on next Tuesday. I will have John George off my hip temporarily by then and I am going to buy one bond or stamp anyway. It is the hope of the government that every wage earner will invest regularly 10 percent of his or her income in defense securities.

Roy Doak is a perfect 4-B

One of the healthiest signs about Grenada is the short delinquent tax list.

We would be most happy to have a personal column about the camp. If you have an item, call either of our daughters, Miss Dorothy or Miss Caroline Whitaker, who work in Mr. Phillips' office, about it. Marriages, births, visits, promotions and other things of that nature would be acceptable. Let's make a good "CAMP COLUMN."

Our printers, Horn and Greenfield, are likely to fall into sin and dissipation Friday and Saturday, unless some job work is forthcoming.

How about getting your gin tickets and your cotton sales books printed NOW, while we can do it without much delay?

Some of the twilight sisters have too much bulge both fore and aft.

Before the stir and bustle of life here is over, you, like the fellow who wrote on the first page of the second section will "Want To Go Back."

The only thing that fellow forgot was, "I want to go back where toothless grandmaw got the children to chew her black gum snuff brushes for my grandmaw. I cannot do it now, for my grandmaw, I cannot do it now, for I have no teeth to chew my own brushes."

Look over your stationery stock. See if you need envelopes, letterheads, statements or other printed forms.

Do not forget that Dr. Dodd, the famous preacher of Shreveport, will start a series of sermons at the First Baptist Church Sunday.

It is somewhat tragic to see so many people who are absolutely desperate for some place to stay in Grenada. It should be the means of making us who are fortunate enough to own our own homes and have our work near our homes, know the value of that home.

Mrs. Brown reported that her sister, "Miss" Lillie Pressgrove, was improving rapidly in the Baptist Hospital in Memphis. This is good news to many people.

Have you noticed the great addition to the telephone building now in process of erection? The size of the building and the capacity of the exchange is being almost doubled. And, by the way, be patient with the "hello" girls, for there is such heavy traffic now due not only to the army camp but also to increased civilian business. We are at war.

Here at top, I guess over ole fren mr long steepie ford kin unlaux whin he sits bak to arkansas, he will mis thet penashun he voted for all so thet x kard.

RECREATION PROGRAM SPONSORED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

The recreational program, sponsored by the Woman's club, of which Mrs. H. A. Alexander is Recreation Chairman and staffed by WPA is being announced in part, this week. Recreation for children and young adults is being promoted by the War Department in congested areas, such as Grenada, where an army camp is under construction, and the play grounds and the recreational center will be supervised or staffed by the WPA under the able direction of Miss Mary Elizabeth McNeill, who was appointed Monday the 8th, she will attend a school of instruction for WPA supervisors at Miss. State at Starkville, next week.

There are three playgrounds in use in Grenada now, with a recreational center at the Community House. Extensive plans are in the making for recreational centers at trailer camps in and near Grenada. Also plans will be presented by Miss McNeill, upon her return from Miss. State, for community gatherings, for young adults. The purpose, for which the ladies are so earnestly striving is to furnish a suitable place where the right kind of amusement may be had for the changing ages of childhood. Every child and young person is welcome at these centers and a cordial welcome will be given to the new citizens coming to us each day.

The committee wishes to state that should you have any play ground equipment, such as croquet sets, backgammon sets, tennis rackets, trapeze, or used card tables, that they will appreciate it if you will give them to these centers, and will appreciate you calling Mrs. H. A. Alexander or notifying Miss Mary Elizabeth McNeill. The City Council has loaned the use of the big room at the Community House for a center.

They will give way, however, to important affairs or meetings whenever requested.

The Community House activities will be supervised both day and night, as Miss McNeill has been assured that as many recreational directors or workers as are needed in this area, will be furnished by the WPA. This is in accordance with the War Department plan for defense areas.

Lt. Cleon Proby Promoted

Word has been received by Mayor and Mrs. Proby that their son, Lt. Cleon Proby, located at the Air Base at Savannah, Ga. now on two weeks' leave.

LT. CLEON PROBY

maneuvers at Panama City, has been named Flight Commander and recommended for promotion to First Lieutenant.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Charles Dickinson was hostess to Bridge Club members at her home last Tuesday. Three tables were arranged for the games. Mesdames E. L. Wilkins and Mrs. E. L. Morrow were the non-member guest.

At intermission the hostess served Coca-Cola and sandwiches.

Mr. Lawhon and Mr. Shackelford, both of the Jackson WPA office were in Grenada today (Thursday) to check on the opening of the WPA recreation centers in Grenada, supervised by Miss Mary Elizabeth McNeill. The Grenada Community House, supervised by Miss McNeill, will be her office headquarters in Grenada.

Miss Helen Horton and Miss Marjory Chapman returned home Monday evening from Belhaven College. Miss Gene Marders of Belhaven College went on to her home in Oakland.

Miss Elizabeth Jacob of Franklin, Kentucky spent a part of last week with her friend, Miss Sue Vandiver.

Mrs. L. D. Boone To Put On Drive Tuesday

On Tuesday, June 10th, Mrs. L. D. Boone and committee will canvas the town, selling membership cards at $1.00 each to mothers who have children to enjoy these recreational centers. This fund will pay for extra needs and furnish nickels for the music at the Community House. Please bear in mind that it is not necessary to buy these membership cards in order to enjoy the recreational centers. Everyone is welcome whether they buy a card or not. It is merely giving the mothers of these children an opportunity to help in the great work sponsored by the Woman's Club, whereby the children of Grenada will benefit so greatly.

The following locations, with the name of center chairman and the group age, also additional information is as follows:

The Community House: Large reception room where young people of all ages are supervised by Miss McNeill and recreational assistants, furnished by WPA. Note, no nickels are needed for music. The sponsors are to furnish the music.

The Methodist Church basement will be another center staffed by WPA workers; the opening date and schedule to be announced later. There are three play grounds, open now and are fully supervised, especially play ground No. 1, where preschool children assemble. Play ground No. 1 is located in the Hoffa lot on Line Street between the George and Perry homes. Children under six years of age play here. Mrs. Art Quantrell is chairman. Play ground No. 2, for children, age 6 to 13 is located on the Grammar school grounds, is supervised and the chairman is Mrs. Donald Sharp. Play ground No. 3 is located on the Kuhne lot, north of John Pressgrove's home on Main Street, and children 13, 14, 15 years of age may enjoy supervised outdoor games within the next week. Mrs. J. B. Perry, Jr., is chairman of this center.

Gets His Wings Saturday

His Grenada and University friends will be delighted to hear that Paul Lockett, son of Mrs. C. E. Lockett and the late Mr. C. E. Lockett, of Grenada.

PAUL LOCKETT

is scheduled to receive his "wings" at the Naval Air Station at Corpus Christi, Texas on Saturday.

Graduates At All Saints College

Dorothy Mary Whitaker, Grenada, Miss., International Relations Club 40-41; President International Relations Club 41-42; attended National meeting at Georgia Tech in March '42; Y. P. S. L. 1940-41-42; Home Economics Club 41-42; President of Literary Club 40-41; Glee Club 40-41; Latin Club 40-41; member of the National Honor Society membership at G. H. S.; Romance Language Club 41-42; finished second in Senior class at All Saints Episcopal College; won the All Saints Athletic Association Emblem in Senior class; was selected to carry the Church flag in graduation procession. This honor was conferred by the faculty.

The above record was made by Dorothy Whitaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, of Grenada. She returned home Tuesday the 9th with her mother, who attended graduation exercises at Vicksburg.

Ain't they sweet.

Watch Your Rents

In VICTORY, an official government bulletin, dated June 9, 1942, we note that Grenada County and all counties touching it are placed in the "defense-rental areas" effective June 1. The following is quoted for the information of all concerned:

"In the designations made June 1, the Price Administrator recommended that rents in the 21 new areas be reduced to levels prevailing on March 1 of this year. Among other points covered in the recommendations were that provisions be made to protect tenants from unwarranted evictions, to prevent evasion of maximum rents by any means whatsoever, and that provisions be made for establishing maximum rents for housing accommodations not rented in March 1, newly constructed or substantially altered since then. As prescribed by the Emergency Price Control Act the areas were given 90 days in which to meet the recommendations."

Cusses Out Mayor and Spends Night In Hotel de Jail

A crowd of soldiers, said to be returning from leave in their home in Indiana, and just about overdue in Camp Shelby, called the Mayor Monday night, explaining that they were stranded. Not receiving what they considered the proper response from His Honor, the soldier speaking proceeded to cuss out His Honor over the phone. Thereafter, Mayor Proby dispatched an officer to arrest the cussor. The cussor was a guest of Matt Cooley in Hotel de Jail that night, but after a good lecture from the Mayor at city court next morning, was permitted to proceed.

It does not pay to cuss out the Mayor.

Selectees From Hernando Take Over Bus

When a chartered bus belonging to Tri State rolled into Grenada Tuesday about noon, it was noted that a State Highway Patrolman was aboard and that he was guarding the driver. According to our information, some if not all Desoto county selectees bound for Shelby were "teed up" and proceeded to take over the bus from the driver in spite of the natural vigorous protest from the driver. At Sardis or Batesville, the aid of the Highway Patrol was enlisted.

Upon arrival in Grenada Captain Burns Tatum called Col. Dalton for instructions. The Colonel requested that another patrolman be assigned to the bus, after which the bus proceeded toward its destination.

Those fellows must not have been anxious to get to Shelby.

Be reasonable with your rents. Get your Bible and read the Golden Rule and apply that rule to the strangers within our gates.

RAPID PROGRESS BEING MADE AT CAMP MCCAIN

Boys 18 To 20 To Be Registered June 30th

Preparatory to the high School Service registration, June 30, for men between the ages of 18 and 20 years, inclusive, local boards in Mississippi are "recruiting" for men to replace teachers who are inducted and who have served in the four previous registrations.

Major Lawrence W. Long, State Director of the Selective Service System, said that a large number of the teachers, despite the vacation period, have volunteered for service at their own stations.

"We do NOT anticipate a shortage of Registrars," Major Long said, "at Boards which have NOT used teachers in the past, since their forces have not been depleted. In cases where teachers were used, sufficient volunteer help from their number or others assure handling of the registration without interruption."

Officials anticipate participation of approximately 90,000 young men in Mississippi in the June 30 registration. Those who must register include all men born on or after January 1, 1922 and on or before June 30, 1942.

The same hours of registration prevail 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. in all areas. Unless Congressional action to the contrary is taken, persons 18 and 19 years of age, who must register June 30, will NOT be subject to military service until they reach the age of 20. All men between 20 and 45 years are subject to military service.

Boys Attend Camp At Oxford

The following boys are attending the Royal Ambassadors Camp at the University of Mississippi this week. This is a boys organization of the Baptist Church. Those who left Thursday morning were: Orley Lilly, Sonny (Ell. Jr.) Whitaker, Irvin Johnson, Jr., Orman Kimbrough, Jr., Jimmie Mitchell and Buck White, of Memphis, who is visiting his aunt, Mrs. S. H. Garner. Mr. Troy Prince accompanied the group.

Promoted To 2nd Lieutenant

Francis D. Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rose, of Grenada, recently received his commission as Second Lieutenant in the Air Corps, having been one of the six men selected from a group of 243, who took an examination for fitness to receive a commission. He has been at Keesler Field, Mississippi, but is at home for a two weeks' stay. He expects to be stationed in the administrative branch of the Air Corps on the Gulf Coast.

He has been at Keesler Field, Mississippi, but is at home for a two weeks' stay. He expects to be stationed in the administrative branch of the Air Corps on the Gulf Coast.

Mr. Frank Gerard, member of the faculty at Riverside, returned home last week for a vacation with his parents.

Mrs. DeMauville, nee Elizabeth Wilkins, spent the first part of the week here with her mother, Mrs. E. L. Wilkins, and on Wednesday returned to her home in Egypt. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. Ben Kavenaugh and little son of Wilkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Brown of Louisville will be hosts to Grenada friends this week end at their rustic cottage located in the beautiful area surrounding the lake in Camp Choctaw, near Louisville. Those invited from Grenada include Mr. and Mrs. Sam Garner, Mr. and Mrs. Spivey Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Orley Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dickinson and Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Townes.

While most of the buildings intended for use of troops have been erected at Camp McCain, the new name for the camp, in the Grenada area—it seems that most of the preliminary work looking to "fill steam ahead" has been done. This Jones construction company, whose force is just about settled in new office building erected next to the Engineers office. Their prefabricating shed will, where all of the framing of structures is to be done, have been set up in Elliott. The subcontractors are busy in and getting set for work.

At the week Sunday, the government acquired all of the land in the area, comprising the remainder of the above area, most of which is in Grenada County, and the other in Montgomery County. It is generally believed that the government has acquired the area, outside the so-called "Army A" which was condemned and acquired about two months ago, will have an opportunity to build their base. Since the original plans were made, a tier of sections in the southern part of the camp area was included in the reservation.

A Civil Engineer, who has been in general charge of the Camp T. Main Company activities in Grenada and in the drafting department in Greenwood, left this week for another large job secured by his company in Bristol, Tenn. He took a number of engineers who have been at work for the company here and in Greenwood have been transferred to the same job. We understand that the Greenwood unit of the company is being liquidated. Mr. Lawrence T. Phillips is in complete charge of the Camp T. Main Company's activities in this area now.

It was noted that the contractors for building the primary roads and the railroad spurs are making nice progress in their work, and it was noted also that five or six carloads of lumber had arrived in the spurs. Most of this lumber, we understand, will be used for erecting temporary shops and buildings for the Jones Company.

Some "cabin" trouble has already developed in the area, and though apparently not very serious, it has caused some delay. A copulator from Washington arrived on the scene.

The trailer camps in the vicinity of the camp are being filled by workers and their families, and it seems hard to believe to get another person into Grenada with a shoe horn. Towns as far away as Water Valley are filling up with workers. The houses where lots are rented are doing good business, while the cafes in Grenada are doing a good office business. General business here is better than in many years.

There is so damn much going on that the writer no doubt has overlooked many things and, perhaps, got a good many of them wrong.

Men Urged To Use Care In Filling Out Questionnaires

An urgent appeal is made in this area to the war effort by using more carefully filling out their occupational questionnaires was issued today by J. B. Pritchard, Manager of the Grenada office of the United States Employment Service.

"Effective utilization of our manpower for wartime industry and agriculture must be accomplished if we are to win the war," Pritchard declared. "For this purpose it is essential that the occupational inventory be completed, speedily and accurately. This occupational inventory is a vital part of the Nation's war program, and it is of the greatest importance that registrants fill out their questionnaires clearly, fully, and accurately."

Manager Pritchard urged all registrants who have any difficulty in filling out the questionnaire to go to their employer for help. Help in filling out the questionnaire is also available at any office of the United States Employment Service or any local draft board office.

Questionnaires have been or are being sent to all men who registered with the Selective Service System, so that eventually the government will have a complete inventory of all its manpower between the ages of 18 and 64. Specifically, the data collected will be used for three principal purposes—first, to avoid the induction into the armed forces of men who are urgently needed in war production; second, to replace workers now deferred from military service on occupational grounds whenever possible with vocational trainees or other qualified persons who because of age, sex, or other reasons are not suitable for military service; third, to speed up war production by promoting the transfer of workers from non-essential to essential work.

Mr. Art Quantrell spent Wednesday in Memphis.

WOODRUFF HILL

In an impressive ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hathorn in Louisville, Miss. Lucile Hill of Grenada and Louisville became the bride of P. F. C. Hilry Woodruff, of Louisville and Camp Beauregard, La., on Thursday evening, May 28, at 8:30 o'clock.

The Rev. W. L. Day, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated in the presence of a few close friends.

The bride was lovely in a becoming gown of blue chiffon with which she wore matching accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations and sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Woodruff is the daughter of Mr. W. T. Hill, of Grenada, and the late Mrs. Hill. For several months she has been employed as bookkeeper at the Taylor Machine Works in Louisville, where she has made many friends.

Mr. Woodruff is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Woodruff, of Louisville. Before enlisting in the service he was connected with The Louisville Motor Company. At present he is stationed with the U. S. Air Corps at Esler Field, Camp Beauregard, La.—Contributed.

COLLINS BATES

The wedding of Miss Eloise Bates of Carrollton, Miss., to Mr. D. F. Collins, Jr. of Grenada, occurred last week at 8 p.m. The groom was at home on furlough from Camp Bowie, Texas.

The above information came to our attention, however, we know that the former Miss Katie Mae Collins, wife of Mr. Harville, is a sister of Mr. D. F. Collins, of Camp Bowie. We wish these young people happiness in their life together.

HARVILLE COLLINS

Announcement has been made of the marriage last week, of Miss Katie Mae Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Collins of Grenada and Mr. J. C. Harville, of Camp Benning, Ga.

Julia Marie Guidrey and Margaret Ann McCorkle left Monday for Episcopal camp "Bratton-Green" to be held this year at "Camp Clarke" near Meridian. Mrs. Guidrey and Mrs. McCorkle took the girls in the car, returning home that afternoon.

P. F. C. Sam Aldridge, of Camp Bowie, Texas, was at home on furlough last week.

Miss Mary Douglas Honeycutt has returned to summer school at Centre College, Danville, Ky.

SUB DEB VISITORS FETED

On Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock Miss Helen Dubard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dubard, and Miss Mary Jane Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Perry, Jr., entertained most delightfully on the spacious lawn of the Dubard home at Dubard, honoring Miss Mary Ann Thrower, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Thrower, of Kosciusko, and Mrs. Ashley Davis, of Paris, Tenn., guest of Jerry Gwin, young daughter of Mrs. Kuhne. Two other young ladies, Misses Betty and Marcia McCorkle, of Gadsden, Ala., were to be honorees at this party, (being house guests of Jerry Gwin) but were unable to arrive in Grenada on that day.

This unique party was most festive, having as the main attraction, an arranged Country Fair. The lawn was dotted by gaily colored booths, a pop corn stand, ice cream and cake booth, hamburger stand, side shows and red lemonade (fruit punch) stand. These booths had such outstanding hawkers as Ben Perry, Jr., Lena Webb Perry, Etoile Dubard, as "Madame Modine", the fortune teller, Lewis Dubard, Jr., as master of ceremony and clown. Mr. Mrs. W. V. Dubard in charge of the hamburger stand, Mr. and Mrs. John McEachin and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dubard, Sr. assisting all guests in their trip to the "Fair."

Mary Jane and Helen presented each guest a package of "paper money" as they arrived and as they attended the shows, or wished for refreshments they paid their way with this money. Following this part of the evening's entertainment, games were played on the lawn. In saying good night, each guest assured their hostesses that the party was most delightful and would be long remembered. The guest list included, the honorees, Miss Ann Thrower, of Kosciusko, Mary Ashley Davis, of Paris, Tenn., the two hostesses Mary Jane Perry and Helen Dubard and Mary Ellen Moss, Gloria Moser, Jerry Gwin, Kuhne, Rosebud Floyd, Peggie Horn, Betty Sue Williams, Kittie Bailey, Jorcen Jordan, Bobby Alexander, Charlie Barranco, Bobby Calk, Albert Graves, Joe Talbert, Lewis Weir, Orman Kimbrough, Bobby Rogers, Harvey Sykes, Conrad Welker, and O. D. Spratlin.

Unable to attend were Betty and Marcia McCorkle, Eva Gene and Sue Robinson, Martha Brooks, Dorothy McCorkle, Hal Sanders, Billy Parham and Jimmie Wells.

The group bought colored balloons from the balloon man and these were kept as favors.

PARTIES FOR VISITORS

The two attractive daughters of Mrs. W. K. Kuhne, Jerre and Bebe who have had as their guests, Marcia and Betty McCorkle, of Gadsden, Ala., and Mary Ashley Davis, of Paris, Tenn., for the past two weeks, and accompanied by them, left for Gadsden Thursday morning. Mary Jane Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Perry, Jr., accompanied them, and will visit her aunt in Birmingham.

While here the McCorkle twins and Jerre and Bebe, and Mary Ashley, also Rosebud Floyd, were honorees at several delightful affairs.

Last Tuesday evening Helen Dubard and Mary Jane Perry entertained at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dubard, for the visitors.

On Friday morning Betty Sue Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Williams entertained in honor of the out-of-town guests, including Rosebud Floyd, guest of Peggie Horn. On Friday evening, Mrs. Kuhne entertained delightfully for the visitors. Sunday afternoon Peggie Horn and Rosebud Floyd took the group to the drug store for a treat and then went to Peggie's home for a few hours. On Monday night Bobby Alexander entertained for the visitors at his home on Snider.

Mrs. Jim Horn went to Middle Tennessee last week to bring her niece, Rosebud Floyd, home with her for a delightful visit.

Mr. T. B. Revell was in Memphis on Wednesday.

Mrs. Malcolm Lawrence is visiting in Grenada this week.

Mrs. Jensen and son, Mr. Stanley Jensen, of Chicago, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jensen this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heath are visiting their sister in Mumfords, Tenn.

Mrs. J. L. Townes Sr. and daughter, Miss Ruth, are in Pensacola visiting in the home of their cousin, Mrs. George LeParde and family. Grenada friends will be interested to learn that Ruth will take lessons in pipe organ from the gifted Miss Ann Galey of Chicago and Cincinnati, and the Pensacola Studio of Music. Ruth is a talented musician and no doubt will acquire most valuable instructions from this noted teacher. She is to specialize in chimes and accompanist culture.

Mrs. George LeParde and Miss Loree Atkinson who spent last week here with relatives have returned to their home in Pensacola.

Mrs. W. B. Nicols is visiting her sister, Mrs. Noble, at Anguilla, this week. They keep our favorite waitress so busy selling bus tickets that she has not had a chance to go down to Little Texas in a long time.

GORE SPRINGS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. James left Saturday for Greenwood and Greenville, where they will visit with their sons and daughters for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tharpe and son spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parker, of Big Creek. They went to be with their sister and family, Mrs. Russell Koonce, of Texas who is Mrs. Parker's guest for a few days.

Miss Agnes Halle had been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Halle, for the past week. On Sunday Mrs. J. W. McCormack and Mr. and Mrs. James Sultan Halle visited in this home.

Mrs. Annie Tharpe spent Sunday afternoon in Grenada as the guest of Mrs. Mary Closton.

Miss Billie Martin spent from Thursday 'til Sunday in Grenada with her sister and uncle, Miss Margaret Martin and Mr. W. L. Martin.

It looks like the name of the camp will be Camp McCain. We do not know of any prominent general of the U. S. A. by that name. We do know that there once lived near Providence (near the camp area) a physician by the name of Dr. McCain who was killed in his own home. The Salters now own the old house. We have a colored subscriber in that area by the name of J. J. McCain.

They put Willie Lee Sykes in Class 1 A, we understand, and he is very indignant about it, as he said he has been laid up for weeks with neuritis. It looks to us like Willie Lee should be in the famous Class 4 B—too much belly, too much bellicosity, too much bridge work and too much fanny.

"Hubby" Barnes, an old Grenada boy, son of the late Circuit Clerk Barnes, has moved back home from Water Valley where he has lived many years. He is a plumber and will have headquarters at Doak Hardware Company.

Much obliged to Lt. J. W. Martin for a copy of ECHELON, an army publication which he and two sergeants at the Air Base at Baton Rouge got out. The field there is called Harding Field.

Please help our printers, Horn and Greenfield, keep out of devilment over the week-end. Save sinners to salvation.

John McEachin, Sam Garner and Ben Townes are saving rubber by tripping up in their daily trips to the swamp in Greenwood. That's a practical way to save precious rubber.

Aint they sweet.

Some labor trouble, we understand, has already developed at the camp. A conciliator from Washington is, or has been here. Too bad.

We note a new sign across the street, "Tony Marascu's Grocery, Louis Marascu, Prop." We predict that some day Louis is going to be a large merchant here.

Roll-em Wall is going to get a few votes here.

We are sorry to learn of the death of our old friend, Cicero Minyard, recently. Mr. Minyard was a mighty good citizen of the Holcomb community. We regret that we have no data on his life and death.

Monroe Williams must have been taking a nap last Sunday afternoon when I passed his house.

A lot of former owners of land in the camp area are not satisfied with the prices received from the government. Their only recourse is to go into Federal Court, as we understand the situation, and there seek to prove that the payment received, or offered, was inadequate.

The court house yard these days is filled with wood butchers seeking to sign up with the union.

They are waiting for a bellyband for the new water tank on the hill.

You help someone you know when you contribute to the USO.

If this is a sorry issue, it is because the old lady was away Monday and part of Tuesday attending the graduation of our daughter, Dorothy, at All Saints College in Vicksburg.

Dear Allen: let us hear from you.

I did not know until we received the birth certificates from Jackson that the old lady and I had two daughters named Caroline, one born two years before the other. Ralph Semmes said he found that, according to the records in Jackson, his children had 3 parents. The reason for these mix-ups is that the doctors at that time thought these birth records were a lot of hokey and they took no pains in making them out.

Aint they sweet.

Brother Bailey mooned a while one day recently.

Well, Ruth is married again.

Went out to Providence Sunday afternoon with Brother and Sister Salter. While I know nothing of oil, I believe I know a good rig when I see one. Bro. Salter has a splendid rig, well braced and well kept. It certainly would be a great thing if a well could be drilled there, as it will be some of these days.

The government should pay John Bradley at least $200.00 a month for his work with the rationing board. As it is, he has to furnish office space, water and lights and most of his time.

HE WANTS TO GO BACK

We are reproducing below an article which appeared in last week's issue of the Simpson County News, entitled "I Want To Go Back" and written by a fellow named E. E. Patton.

We don't know where this fellow lives, but if he is still living, and this war lasts very much longer, he may "go back" a lot quicker than he thought he would when he was writing the following:

I have lived in the heat and dirt and smoke of this man-made town until I am ready to scream. I have heard the braying of horns and jackass politicians until I want to get back on the farm and hear the bray of a real sim-on-pure jackass. The chance would be sweet music to my ears. Here the land is all kivered with bricks and concrete and the hearts of many of our people are as hard flinty as the sidewalks.

Yes, I want to go back to the country where the air is soft and pure; where the neighbors will come and "set up" with the sick and help dig a grave and shovel the dirt on departed friends, dropping a genuine tear of regret at their passing; where they go to meed'n and "pitch" the tune with a tunin' fork and sing through their noses with the fervor and spirit of the faithful. All church services were held at "early candle-light" in the evening.

I want to trim the lamp wicks again and fill the lamps with oil, or if, carried from the country store, in a can with an Irish fater stuck in the spoon. I want to eat some food cooked on the old "step-stove"—the old iron-witch stove—sweet taters baked in the oven on the "heath" over hickory and red oak coals. I want to see the small boy swing the fly brush to keep the pesky devils off the table. And right here it might be said that a family rated according to the kind of fly brush it had. The very poor used a limb cut from a mulberry tree; the middle class had one cut out of newspapers; the upper rich had one of a peafowl's tail; that family rated high, brother.

I want to go back where all of the common, everyday towels were made of salt sacks, and where there was only one "store" towel which was put out only when the preacher came. I want to see the man of the house take his table-knife of chilled steel and whet it on his fork tines before he carved the sow-belly that had been cooked with beans. Did ye ever eat lye hominy or "shuck beans"? If not, you have never really lived; you have merely existed.

I want to see the housewife reach into the salt gourd and get a pinch or two of salt to season the beans and taters. And who has not seen "soft" soap put into a terrapin's shell, with grandpa's initials cut on the side?

Let's go into the "big house" and set by the fire and see the old fashioned dog irons and the wrought iron shovel and tongs, made in the country blacksmith shop. And did you ever see yer daddy heat the old shovel, on a bitter cold day, and hold it in front of the old Seth Thomas clock to thaw out the frozen oil so the old timepiece could go to tickin' off the hours? And do you remember the old sunmark on the back doorsill when they had no clock? There was no such thing as daylight saving time then; they got up at three o'clock in the mornin' and went to bed at seven unless it was apple-butter makin' time then they stayed up until around eight.

But the "parlor" was the sacred place; there where all the sparkin' was done; there was the bed. Two straw ticks, one big feather bed, with fat bolsters, and pillows. When the bed was not in use—and that was seldom—the pillows were covered with what was known as "shame" which had mottoes on them. I remember this one: "I slept and dreamed that life was beauty; I woke and found that life was duty." That was calculated to hold you for some time.

On the "center" table was the old family album with plush backs. It held the pictures of the family dating back to the Civil War and, in some instances, the likeness of a great uncle who fought with Scott in Mexico. Those in civilian clothes always had one hand on their knee and the other folded over the stomach. I want to go back where all the shoe boxes were saved to make spittles for the women's bonnets; remember 'em?

I want to go back and carry a few haphkins in my pocket just in case the boss busts a trace chain; I want to the coon hide hamstring once more and set the collar deep by hiking the backland up just behind the boss' withers. I want to spend Christmas in the country and get off the Christmas-tree one stick of candy, one orange, and one penny pencil. The rich once gave their children a French harp and the night was filled with music and the carols that infest the day folded their tents like Arabs and as silently stole away.

I want to go back where they make sausage and solise meat; where the pumpkin is sliced and hung on the quinin' frames to dry. That was before germs, vitamins, and termites had been invented. I want to carry the old Barlow knife once again and whittle red cedar and soft poplar. I want to see the yaller "thunderbugs" drying in the sun back of the kitchen; I want to go back where only gran'ma smoked, granny used a long-stemmed clay pipe which she fired by dipping it into the ashes on the "heath" and tamping it down against the jamb of the chimney—chimbley.

I want to go back where the geese are picked every month; where the roosters are permitted to run with the hens, openly and brazenly; where corn is planted, and soap is made by the signs of the moon; where warrens and hickory nuts are gathered in the fall for the winter meats; where the boys still sell peach seeds to buy their winter boots; and where said boots are greased with sheep or beef tallow; where the peggin'awl is still in use; where Arbuckle's coffee is still parched in the stove and ground in a mill hung on the wall of the kitchen; where pap ties the brooms; where they make penguins out of elder and shoot two wads in them; where they still order stickpins from J. Lyn and Company; where squirrel hides are tanned for the family supply of shoe strings. And did ye ever color any Easter eggs with madder; did ye ever borrow the dutin' irons?

Yes, I want to go back where they drink sassafras tea to "thin" their blood in the springtime; where they churn with the old up and down churn; where they turn the cream jar around as it sits by the fire in the big house so it will get in the right "kelter" for churning; where they always lick their knives before they cut butter; where goose quill toothpicks are still in use; where they still "bathe" for clothes and use bluin'; where they fill the straw ticks right after thrashin' time; and cord the beds every month; where they wear long red flannel drawers and where the children wear bibs.

Yes, I want to go back to the country and get my fill of cracklin' bread; I want to see the old whatnot in the corner of the big house; I want to engage in a spelling watch in Webster's old blue-back speller, the finest in the world; and read from McGuffey's Reader—none better; I want to see the school children, one after another, raise their hands and say: "Teacher may I go outdoors?" I want to see the people eat again and shovel it in with their knives; I want to go to the neighbor and borrow the ginslet; I want to go back where they have 3 meals a day; breakfast, dinner and supper and where the word "lunch" will never be heard again.

Yes, I want to go back and make another corn-sucker out of locust; I want to strip some cane and top it; and dip the skimmings just once more; I'd like to call a few doodle bugs outen their holes; but I want to avoid the Spanish needles, the cockle burs, the seed ticks, the beggar lice and the chiggers that make life unbearable; to avoid stone bruises forever.

Yes, I'd like to see the old side-saddle hangin' on the peg on the front porch covered with a green riding skirt; the wimmen did not ride straddle then. I'd like to "prime" the ashhoppers and get a sassafras stick to stir the soap.

Backward turn backward, O

Time in the night.

Make me a child again for tonight!

O Lord, let me go back once more die then. I'd like to "prime" the ash-

Broken-Hearted Peggy

By JANE OSBORNE
McClure Syndicate—WNU Features.

ON HIS way to Dot Benson's house that night Jim Kenyon stopped at the Martins' to return a book. Mrs. Martin cornered him as he was giving the book to the maid. "Jim, dear," said Mrs. Martin with a tone of pleading in her voice, "could you drag yourself away from that fascinating Dot person long enough to play bridge with us some night next week?"

Jim was thinking of excuses as Mrs. Martin continued. "You see, my niece, Peggy Martin, is coming for a few weeks—and there is so little to do evenings. I'd ask some of the young people, only poor Peggy I'm sure wouldn't be in the mood. Perhaps your mother has told you—poor Peggy is broken-hearted—"

His mother had not told him, but Jim had heard of Mrs. Martin's niece Peggy. A friend of his in college had had a picture of her. His impression was that she was one of the very pretty sort. Jim never missed a chance to meet a pretty girl.

"The poor little girl's heart is broken," Mrs. Martin told him. "You see the only young man she ever cared for—practically engaged to, I believe—has died." Mrs. Martin's voice was lowered and grave.

"Too bad," said Jim with a sigh, and then thinking of his college friend who had her picture he asked Mrs. Martin if she recalled the young man's name.

"I really don't know his last name. His first name was Ted," she told him.

So it was arranged that Jim should come around Tuesday—make it appear that he had just casually dropped in—and then allow himself to be persuaded to stay. As Jim reflected, there wasn't much nourishment to be gained from spending the evening playing cards with a heartbroken girl no matter how pretty she happened to be. Still there was a chance that Dot would hear he had spent the evening with Peggy—he might manage to get the heartbroken girl to go motoring with him. There was a chance that Dot would see them. She was decidedly too popular with the men and needed a jolt. That would help him with Dot.

So they played bridge, and Jim asked Peggy if she would go motoring the next afternoon.

The next day when Jim took Peggy driving in his roadster he behaved as if he knew he should toward a heartbroken girl. He kept the conversation from being at all personal even when the girl at his side seemed to be otherwise disposed.

"You have been a positive life saver," she told him once. "Aunt hasn't apparently planned any excitement. Tomorrow she is taking me to the old cemetery to see where all the Martins are buried—and this afternoon she took me to the cathedral for vespers."

"I suppose she thought you would like it," Jim looked away from her—feeling that he had touched too closely the hurt of her broken heart.

When Jim stopped at the Martins' after the drive Mrs. Martin managed to see him alone in the hall. "Can't you manage to come over again after dinner?" she asked. "You seem to cheer Peggy up so. She doesn't mind being with you. Perhaps that is because I told her you were so distracted about Dot—"

"You needn't have told her that," laughed Jim, feeling really annoyed. After they were tired of cards they sat, the four of them, before the embers in the fireplace.

"Jim has been neglecting her for you, Peggy, I'm afraid," said Mrs. Martin. "Perhaps you wouldn't mind if Jim explained to Dot how it is with you—"

"Dot cares as little for me as I care for Dot," Jim protested. There was a silence, then Mrs. Martin sighed, so did Jim and so did Mr. Martin. Jim gently took Peggy's hand in his. "Poor little girl," he said. But the broken-hearted Peggy just looked in amazement first at Mrs. Martin and then at Mr. Martin and then at Jim.

"Why all the sympathy?" she asked still allowing her hand to rest in Jim's.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin exchanged glances and Jim looked intently at the embers, stroking Peggy's hand gently the while.

"Your mother told us what you had been through," at last volunteered Mrs. Martin.

"I suppose she mentioned poor old Ted," said Peggy. "Well, I was a bit cut up—but anyway I kept him till the end—even if he was pretty old. I just wouldn't let them shoot him." There were three gasps of varying intonation. Peggy added, "Poor old doggy."

And later when Mr. Martin left for the kitchen and his midnight snack, and Mrs. Martin followed when a sudden noise suggested a broken plate, Jim slipped his arm about Peggy's shoulders.

"I want it understood here and now that tomorrow night, and the next night, and every other night you're stepping out with James Carter Jr.," he said severely thinking of the other eligibles in town.

Peggy laughed. "The first really sensible idea you've had," she answered.

Newest Beach and Swim Suits Feature Dressmaker Influence

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

ONE glance at the new bathing apparel gives us the heartening assurance that there will be no lack of charm, versatility or fashion interest on the beach this summer. Wool and rubber priorities have only added fresh impetus to an already important trend toward a wider use of other fabrics this season than usual to make up for the curtailment in other directions.

All of which means for swim wear a glamorous and exciting collection of graceful and flattering suits in a wide range of intriguing materials with very special emphasis on handsome rayon weaves which include such interesting textures as shantung, jerseys, luxurious looking crepes, taffetas, failles and many other types. Calicoes and ginghams, too, have their place in the swim suit realm, as do piques, fine sharkskins and many other striking novelties.

Another important new angle to beach wear and swim-suit fashions is the dressmaker influence which prevails throughout their styling. That is not surprising, for the widespread use of a surprisingly long list of fabrics would inevitably call for dressmaker technique in their styling, and you may be sure the designers are making the most of it.

You can swim this year in a softly draped or moulded dressmaker suit of fine rayon crepe or sleek jersey, or be gay and perky in a trim, bare-midriff halter and shorts costume of brisk acetate rayon sharkskin. You'll see, also, "little girl" ruffled suits in crisp rayon taffeta, gingham or quaint calicoes. There are tailored princess styles galore in such rich materials as the new and very fashionable failles and shantung which offer a range of most lovely brilliant and dusky colors.

new dressmaker trend in versatile moods. Note the pert fashion at the top left in the group. The fact that it is fashioned of a fine rayon shantung in a sooty black is significant, for black is the smartest thing you can wear in play clothes. Black linens, thin black mesh weaves and black shantung are also ultra chic for town wear in tailored jacket suit or two-piece jacket dresses. A thin white edging at neck and hem accents the rich black of the shantung that makes this flattering princess swim suit, with its "bra"-topped bodice, slender waistline and gracefully flared skirt. The narrow self-fabric sash ties at the front.

The vogue for fluid, molded lines has inspired the charming two-piece bathing suit shown at the upper right, which uses soft-draping acetate rayon jersey in a striking navy and white print design for its surplice-draped "bra"-top and new shirred-on dirndl skirt.

Very gay for beach or swimming is the flared one-piece suit at the lower left. It is intriguingly styled of rustling rayon taffeta in a tiny green and white check. Sprightly self ruffles outlined with navy rick-rack braid trim the brief skirt and flattering heart-shaped décolletage.

The beautifully tailored two-piece bathing suit in crisp white rayon sharkskin seen on the figure reclining in the foreground to the right is trimmed with bows and a wide band of coin-dotted navy rayon crepe. The use here made of polka dots carries out the newly fashionable use of dots as trimming for accessories, and for whole costumes.

Party Finery

Even this six-year-old isn't too young for a beauty lesson that makes flowers its theme. See the pretty posy in her hair. Young girls, and children, too, are taking to wearing flowers in the hair instead of hair ribbons. As to the cunning bouquet she is carrying in her hand, it is a replica in miniature of the one her mother will be wearing. Yes, indeed, matching bouquet of snap dragons, carnations and sweet-heart roses make charming gifts for traveling or far-away soldier husbands and fathers to wire to mother and daughter when the calendar points to a birthday or some other very special event. Flowers, like the bright colors being featured this season, help to cheer both the wearer and those who see her looking so daintily charming. And it's her duty to look charming!

Many Still Prefer Black-and-White

Regardless of all the fuss being made over vivid color and plenty of it, many women are turning enthusiastically to black and white.

They consider the costume ensemble ideal that includes a black and white print frock done in the latest manner of side drape, finished off with a pleated frill and pleated collar fitted to a low neckline. This is topped with a black straw wide brimmed hat crowned with waxen white gardenias. The shoes (low heeled pumps) and the bag should be in glistening patent leather.

Cotton Lace Suits Join List of Summer 'Musts'

Lace is good news these days, for it is one item that is not on the government "want list." Very swank for summer is cotton lace in a large sporty pattern made into jacket and skirt suits for summer day wear.

You can get bewitching suits with skirts pleated for action, topped with jackets of the favorite long-torso type that so beautifully slenderizes your figure. In navy these lace suits are too attractive looking for words, and for dressy summer wear a white or wheat-color lace suit gives you a costume that will take you anywhere with an assurance of being accounted among the best dressed.

Black Lace

There is a new fashion developing which is worth while considering. It is the blouse that is made of the most exquisite black lace you can find in the stores. Make it up simply but effectively. Wear it in the afternoon with a black satin or taffeta skirt and in the evening with a diaphanous chiffon skirt in lovely pastel coloring.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

SUNDAY: THE RISEN CHRIST AND HIS DISCIPLES

LESSON TEXT—Luke 24:33-48.
GOLDEN TEXT—Ye are witnesses of these things.—Luke 24:48.

The glory and gladness of the resurrection morning drove back the darkness of the tomb and replaced the disciples' sadness with holy gladness. God's message to His people is one of assurance and hope. The night may be dark, but the dawn will surely come.

Two of Jesus' disciples had been walking sadly along the road to Emmaus when suddenly a stranger was with them, telling them what the Scriptures taught about the Christ—His sufferings and His glory. Their hearts burned strangely within them (Luke 24:32), but they did not recognize Him until He broke the bread of their evening meal—and then He was gone.

But now they had a joyous message which sent them hurrying back to Jerusalem to the eleven who had gathered behind locked doors to discuss the reports which had also come to them of His resurrection. And suddenly—

I. "Jesus Himself Stood in the Midst" (vv. 33-43).

What a blessed and conclusive confirmation of their report. He, their beloved Lord and Master, stood there before them, alive and speaking His tender message of "Peace."

The disciples, however, were bewildered and slow to believe. Observe how kind and patient He was with these frightened and unbelieving men. And note what a splendid testimony it is to the truth of the resurrection that they who knew Him best expected proof before they believed.

Before we condemn them for lack of faith let us ask ourselves if we would have done better, and let us be thankful that their hesitation made assurance doubly sure. He was really there—alive. Partaking of food (which He did not need), and giving them opportunity to touch His body, He demonstrated the reality of the resurrection.

He next gave them a sure foundation for faith.

II. "Then Opened He Their Understanding" (vv. 44, 45).

This He did that they might "understand the scriptures." Their minds had become confused and He literally "disentangled" them. We need to have the knots and kinks taken out of our thinking about God's Word. Then we too will understand.

Dealing with the entire Old Testament (divided by the Hebrews into law, prophets and psalms), He thus gave it His endorsement. Men may deny, but Jesus approved the Scriptures of the Old Testament—and we are ready to take His word. "All things must be fulfilled" is His statement concerning Himself. There is our Lord's guarantee that the promises of His second coming, and all that is associated with it, as well as with His future reign, will be fulfilled.

This time of fellowship with the Lord around the Word of God was strengthening to their faith, but it had another purpose. The blessings of God are not for our own satisfaction alone, for it is His will that there be—

III. "Repentance Preached in His Name" (vv. 46-48).

There is a message to go out through His disciples to all nations. He died for the sins of the world. He arose for the justification of those who believe. There is remission of sin for those who in repentance and faith turn to Him.

Fellowship with Christ and an understanding of His Word which does not result in aggressive witness for Him is quite useless. We meet Him and study His Word not only that we may grow in grace, but that we may be witnesses to all nations.

To be a witness involves knowledge of a fact, to the truth of which the individual can bear testimony. The disciples were called to be witnesses, "not speculators, philosophers, moralists or legislators. They had neither to argue nor to dissertate, nor to lay down rules for conduct, nor to ventilate their own fancies. They were witnesses, and their business was to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth" (Alexander MacLaren).

The Christian by life possibly more than by word is to "adorn the doctrine of God," as Paul put it (Titus 2:10), commending it to those around about him. Observe that such a witness is to start right at home, "beginning at Jerusalem" (v. 47). It may be difficult in our times to send witnesses to distant lands, for ships are busy carrying the men and implements of war. But right in your Jerusalem there is a spiritual need, in your little town or rural community, in the city where you live, in your home, office, shop, or school. You who read this who are in the service of the country will find a "Jerusalem" in your camp or on your ship.

NEW IDEAS for Home-makers

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

A STOOL often looks better in front of a desk or telephone stand than a chair with a high back. A substantial wooden box may make the foundation, and if well padded and smartly covered will be as attractive as anything that you could buy.

Before shopping for materials check over things on hand. Moss, horse hair and even feathers from discarded upholstered pieces may be sewn in a cheese cloth bag and washed before using again. Worn draperies and bedspreads usually have unfaded good pieces in them that may be used for covering a small piece like this.

NOTE: Have you sent for a copy of the new BOOK 8, in the series of homemaking booklets which Mrs. Spears has prepared for our readers? It contains 31 of these ideas for homemakers with all directions. To get a copy of BOOK 8, send your order to:

Facts About Flies

One pair of flies can multiply to 335,923,200,000,000 flies in 10 weeks, if all their offspring live, according to Alan Devoe in Reader's Digest. In writing about "Our Enemy the Fly," Devoe says that a fly egg hatches in 24 hours, the larva becomes an adult fly in less than 10 days. Thereafter at 10-day intervals, for 8 to 10 weeks, the female fly lays 100 eggs. The total for nine generations of a single pair thus amounts to trillions of offspring.

"We must fight continuously against adult flies that get into our houses, wielding old-fashioned swatter, spraying, using fly-paper," says Devoe.

Oldest Flag in America

The oldest known flag in existence in North America is the banner of Cortez which was borne in the procession when Cortez returned thanks to God at Cuyoacan for the capture of Mexico City, 1519. It is now preserved under glass in the National museum, Mexico City.

AROUND THE HOUSE

Table salt added to blue water distributes the color more evenly and prevents streaked or patchy-looking clothes.

To tighten springs in curtain rollers, hold roller firmly, put end of spring between tines of fork and turn until spring is tight.

To provide the most adequate serving of omelet allow three eggs for every two servings.

A fine spread for lunch sandwiches: Cover a pound of dried apricots with water and cook until tender. Then add an equal quantity of apples (in bulk) and cook all together. When it is cooked, sweeten to suit the taste.

A delicious dessert is a serving of baked apples which have been baked in pineapple juice. Peel and core the apples and bake until they are soft and juicy.

Inspect the refrigerator every morning before planning the day's menu. That is one of the best ways of checking on the cooked food supply and of utilizing every leftover.

If your fountain pen is found to be dry, and there is no ink available, draw up a dozen drops of water into the barrel and shake well. It will tide you over.

Luggage, brief cases, men's belts, books, leather chairs, card cases, purses and handbags should be treated with vaseline occasionally to prolong their life.

PREPAREDNESS by the AMERICAN RED CROSS

MATERIAL assistance to service men's dependents by the 3,700 chapters of the American Red Cross has increased more than six-fold in the past few months, officials announced today.

Families or dependents of men in the armed forces are urged to keep in close touch with their Red Cross chapters so that existing problems may be handled promptly and others arising from war conditions may be prevented.

When war was declared wholesale cancellation of applications for discharges from the army on the grounds of dependency upset families' plans for the immediate future. Likewise, the transfer of troops from one station to another, and orders for departure from the country, left many unsettled problems. These sudden shifts created an unprecedented increase of work for the chapters.

However, with its resources generously contributed by the American people, the Red Cross is enabled to relieve immediate hardships of the service men's families and to help them plan adjustments to wartime conditions.

Officials stress the fact that this service to dependents is a legal and moral obligation of the Red Cross derived from its congressional charter.

Young wives and children left stranded far from home; parents who are hard-pushed to make ends meet; younger brothers and sisters in need of food or clothing—these are just a few of the thousands of situations which are being taken care of by local Red Cross home service workers.

If a service man is reported killed, wounded or missing the Red Cross will obtain information through its communication facilities. The men of the armed forces are likewise served by the thousand or more field military and naval stations at home and abroad.

Casualty—1,000 miles from the enemy

ALMOST as fatal as a bullet or a shell is the breakdown in the spirit of a sailor or a soldier.

Our men have the finest spirit in the world. But it must be maintained in the American way.

They must not be made to feel that they are mere automatons, fighting machines, as the armed forces of the dictators have been made to feel.

Life in our navy and army is hard. Discipline is tough. It must be. But there also must be moments when the sailor or soldier is treated as Mr. Somebody-or-other.

That's where the USO comes in. For the USO is the banding together of six great agencies to serve one great purpose—to see that our boys in the camps and naval stations have a place to go, to turn to, a "home away from home."

The duties of the USO have more than doubled during the year. Its field of operations has enlarged to include almost the entire face of the globe.

To carry on its all-important work, it needs funds. It needs your contribution. No matter how small you make that contribution, it needs it. Now.

You are beset by requests for help on all sides. By all means, try to meet those requests. But among them, don't neglect the USO.

Send your contribution to your local USO committee, or to USO, National Headquarters, Empire State Building, New York.

JIM EASTLAND IN SENATE RACE

Started Fight for Farmer and South During 3-Month Term

Former Senator James O. Eastland has formally opened his campaign for election to the United States Senate, subject to the Democratic primaries August 25th, 1942.

It will be remembered that Senator Eastland was appointed to the Senate last summer following the death of Senator Pat Harrison and served in the Senate while an election to fill the unexpired term was being held.

His tenure in the Senate was marked by a degree of activity seldom seen on the part of an interim appointee. His term was from June 30th until September 10th during which time the cotton crop was in process of harvesting and being marketed. Ceiling prices were being attempted to be placed on cottonseed oil and pine timber.

Senator Eastland took advantage of the opportunity and led a group fighting the deflationary forces that were alarmed by the advancing farm prices. He introduced a bill to prevent government owned stocks of cotton being placed upon the market in competition to the then current crop. He assailed price czar Leon Henderson for his attempt to fix a price on cottonseed oil below its quoted market value and fought to increase the ceiling price fixed on pine timber. He likewise prevented the importation of 400,000 bales of Brazilian cotton. It was acknowledged that his record fight for cotton was marked with a degree of success that brought him national recognition.

The only war measure to come before the U. S. Senate during his tenure was the extension of the draft. Eastland voted for the extension of the draft act and for an increase in basic soldier pay of ten dollars a month.

Senator Eastland is a native of Scott County, Mississippi, and formerly represented that county in the legislature. He now lives at Ruleville, Sunflower County, and is a lawyer and farmer. He is thirty-eight years old, married, and has two children.

His headquarters in Jackson is located at 116 Roach Street, across from the Tower Building. He welcomes letters and correspondence from anyone interested in his campaign. Joe E. Brown, of Natchez, has been appointed campaign manager.

Willard Odom, we hear, made a big haul of skocot down on the Peavine recently. Wonder what Babe Costlow is going to do now.

These top waters have been gutting me here lately. I lost my buckeye.

They say Dorothy McCracken will soon be able to come home. Her friends will be delighted, we know.

The Home Front

With molasses on a war footing, he South's old sabotage expert—Mr. Boll Weevil—threatened to get the jump on us this year. But WPB has paved the way to trap him by changing its restrictions so farmers can buy molasses to kill such insects.

Rice has been brought under the price ceiling because of repeated raises. Pay no more for it now than you did last March.

The Office of Defense Transportation has just completed a survey of passenger travel. It's a step toward rationing space on trains and inter-city busses.

GOING FOR A SONG

Auctioneers may ask their spell-bound audiences to bid down instead of up one of these days . . . OPA has decreed that goods sold at auction must stay under the price ceiling.

Fall lines of women's and children's clothing are to be priced at 1941 levels. With school out, Southern WPB Director Neely expects boys and girls to really go after rubber, steel, copper . . . all materials we need to lick the Japs. Now's the time to get the scrap, he says; we'll never need it more.

GASOLINE LEAK

The only home front program which hasn't met with wholehearted support in the South is gas rationing. OPA has indicted two filling station men, says it has evidence on enough other violators to fill the jails. Southern OPA chief, Oscar Strauss, says people in the rationed area are getting a last chance to mend their ways before the big crack down.

Make no mistake . . . OPA means business. This is war, and when Army or Navy requirements make rationing advisable, folks who won't cooperate are going to be stepped on. They're in the enemy's camp.

AMENDED FENCES

WPB has amended its steel orders so farmers can buy fence wire, poultry netting, barbed wire, gates, posts, corrugated siding and roofing. You can also get bale ties, staples, nails, and small pipe. Unfrozen now are .22-caliber rifles and small gauge shotguns, but not target pistols or rifles which the army can use for training.

Transportation has become such a problem that it's difficult to move salvaged waste paper to the mills. Keep saving it, but don't save tin cans.

OPT is asking farmers to eliminate unnecessary driving and take better care of their cars and trucks. The rubber shortage makes farm vehicles important machines on the war production front at home.
